

GALATIANS

CHAPTER FIVE

1. From what are Christians set “free?”
2. Identify two consequences of becoming circumcised.
3. How is righteousness obtained?
4. What had the Galatians been doing that they were “hindered” from continuing?
5. Whom had their present persuasion come from?
6. Describe the potential of leaven.
7. What thoughts did Paul have about the two separate parties?
8. What was Paul experiencing and how did that confirm his stance on the subject?
9. What did Paul wish the troublemakers would do?
10. Is liberty in Christ absolute?
11. How is the law summarized?
12. What is the predictable outcome of infighting?
13. How may a Christian properly refrain from fleshly lusts?

14. What is the relation between "the flesh" and "the Spirit?"
15. Where does the law fit into the life of a Spirit-led person?
16. List the "evident" "works of the flesh" and be prepared to define each one.
17. Is the list exhaustive?
18. What becomes of "those who practice such things?"
19. How many fruits of the Spirit are there?
20. List the component elements of "the fruit of the Spirit" and identify which "works of the flesh" each one contradicts.
21. Which law do the preceding virtues comport with?
22. What have "those who are Christ's" done and what do those who "live in the Spirit" do?
23. What behaviors will be refrained from when living and walking in the Spirit?
