

GALATIANS

CHAPTER SIX

1. Whose responsibility is restoring the man overtaken in trespass?
2. How should restoration be approached?
3. What concern should the restorer be cognizant of during the process?
4. How may the law of Christ be fulfilled?
5. How might one deceive himself?
6. Whose work ought one to examine?
7. Reconcile the command to "Bear one another's burdens" with the statement that "Each one shall bear his own load."
8. What should be shared between teacher and student?
9. What would amount to self-deception and mockery of God?
10. What will be harvested after sowing to the flesh or Spirit, respectively?
11. Why must fatigue be overcome?
12. When opportunity presents, what should be done?
13. Why is Paul's penmanship relevant?

14. What was the motive for those who would compel the Galatians to be circumcised?
15. What should a Christian boast about?
16. Is circumcision relevant in Christ?
17. Whom did Paul pronounce peace and mercy upon?
18. Identify "the Israel of God."
19. Why were the brethren to quit harassing the apostle?