

JOEL
CHAPTER THREE

1. When will the events foretold occur?
2. Who are the “captives” God intended to “bring back?”
3. Where would Jehovah “gather all nations?”
4. What would He do with “all nations” at Jehoshaphat?
5. What are the charges levelled against the nations?
6. What was God’s first question to Tyre, Sidon, and Philistia?
7. What was His second question to them?
8. What had the Tyrians, Sidonians, and Philistines done to merit retaliation from God?
9. How would God “return” their “retaliation” upon their “own head?”
10. What are the nations summoned to?
11. What were the nations to do with their plowshares and pruning hooks?
12. Did God literally mean for armed conflict or some other adversarial situation?
13. How else does God illustrate His impending judgment?

14. After the analogy, what are the multitudes again warned about directly?
15. Explain the sun, moon, and stars going dark.
16. Where would God's voice be heard coming from?
17. What effect does His voice have upon "the heavens and earth?"
18. While heaven and earth were shaking, what would become of Israel?
19. What would they come to know?
20. What would become of "Jerusalem?"
21. What is the significance of the wine, milk, and water all dripping, flowing, and flooding?
22. Why would Egypt and Edom be desolated?
23. In what sense would Judah and Jerusalem always abide?
24. What would God who dwells in Zion do about blood?
