

PHILIPPIANS

CHAPTER THREE

1. How many times has Paul urged the Philippians to “rejoice” up to this point? What is the cause for joy in this instance?
2. What might seem “tedious?” What was it, actually?
3. Whom did he warn about? Why did he call them what he did?
4. In contrast to those he warned against, whom does he count himself among?
5. If Paul was inclined to boast in the flesh, what claims could he stack up against an opponent?
6. What had all these gainful things in Judaism become to him in Christ?
7. How did Paul intend to be found in Christ?
8. What was the apostle gladly anticipating?
9. Why was he pressing on?
10. How could he reach forward?
11. What did he tell the mature to do?
12. Whose pattern and example must be followed?

13. Why did Paul insist the Philippians think like he did and follow his and similar examples?
14. Why would the enemies of the cross meet their end in destruction?
15. Where is our citizenship?
16. What are we waiting for Jesus to do?
